

interRAI New Zealand in partnership with the interRAI Research Network is seeking its next Emerging Researcher

interRAI Group Manager, Margaret Milne, with our 2024 Emerging Researcher, Julie Daltrey.

interRAI Services works closely with the interRAI Research Network (iRN) to promote the value of interRAI through data and research. Each year, interRAI Services and the iRN present an Emerging Researcher Award to enable its recipient to attend and present their research at the annual interRAI Knowledge Exchange.

Eligibility criteria:

- the recipient must be within 5 years of completing a Ph.D., or currently studying a post-graduate degree
- the recipient must attend the 5th Knowledge Exchange in Wellington on 10 February 2025 to present their research
- the recipient's research utilises interRAI data
- the recipient is prepared to join the iRN

To apply:

- Complete the application form by clicking here or scanning the QR code on the right. The deadline for applications is 16 December 2024
- The successful applicant will be advised before 10 January 2025

The Emerging Researcher Award includes $500 towards travel costs to attend the interRAI 5th Knowledge Exchange and will be accompanied by a certificate of recognition. If you have any questions, please email karen.goymour@tewhatuora.govt.nz
