

4th interRAI Knowledge Exchange Programme

14 March 2024

69 Tory Street, Te Aro, Wellington

Please register here

A focus on

Using interRAI data to Inform Health and Social Policy.

8.30 am	Informal networking and welcome tea / coffee
9.30 am	Housekeeping Formal welcome to session - karakia Welcome from interRAI New Zealand	Karen Goymour, Te Whatu Ora - interRAI Joanna Hikaka, interRAI Research Network (iRN) Nigel Millar – Chair interRAI NZ Board and interRAI Fellow
9.45 am	Introducing today's programme and Welcome from the Research Network	Gary Cheung Chair, interRAI Research Network (iRN)
	Session chair:	Gary Cheung Chair, interRAI Research Network (iRN)
9.55 am	interRAI assessments as a data source: contextual findings	Sarah Colhoun University of Otago
10.15 am	The interRAI assessment for Elder Abuse: We Can Do Better	Yoram Barak University of Otago
10.35 am	Presentation – Emerging Researcher Award	Margaret Milne Group Manager interRAI Services NZ- Sponsor
10.45 am	Association of clinical indicators of acute deterioration and morbidity and mortality in the residential aged care (ARC) population: a retrospective cohort study of routinely collected health data (interRAI-LTCF NZ)	Julie Daltry University of Auckland
11.05 am	Morning Tea
	Session chair:	Gabrielle Stent, Principal Advisor Te Whatu Ora - interRAI
11.25 am	Estimating the incidence of dementia in New Zealand using capture-recapture analysis on routinely collected health data	Etuini Ma'u University of Auckland
11.45 am	Time to Aged Residential Care Admission in Young Onset Dementia: A Cohort Study	Gia Tan University of Auckland
12.05 pm	Forum Discussion Analysis of Entry to Aged Residential Care – ongoing review	Isobel Ryan NASCA

12.25 pm	Comparing interRAI with other approaches to determine poor oral health among older adults in aged residential care	Moira B. Smith and Murray Thomson University of Otago
12.45 pm	Lunch - karakia
1.30pm	Welcome back to afternoon	Gabrielle Stent, Principal Advisor Te Whatu Ora - interRAI
	Session chair:	Sally Aydon – Manager interRAI Education and Support Services – Te Whatu Ora
1.35 pm	Deprescribing to Reduce Polypharmacy after InterRAI assessments: A Randomized Controlled Trial	Hamish Jamieson University of Otago, Christchurch and Te Whatu Ora, Waitaha
1.55 pm	Forum Discussion interRAI Check-up Self Report	Steering Committee, Paeārahi supported interRAI Check Up Self Report (CU-SR) Assessment Delivery Project'
2.25 pm	AI & interRAI Forum Discussion Machine Learning in Dementia Risk Prediction using Routinely Collected Data The Traffic Light System: A novel prescriptive geriatric patient prioritisation machine learning model. How we might maintain a human focus while acting on the near-term opportunities for AI in Older Peoples Health	Panel discussion includes: Cristian Gonzalez Prieto and Sarah Cullum University of Auckland Abtin Ijadi Maghsoodi Te Whatu Ora Kavi Chetty and Jacqui Summers Deloitte's
3.10pm	Stretch and coffee/tea
	Session chair:	Ngaire Kerse - interRAI Research Network (iRN)
3.20 pm	Forum Discussion Clinical utility of interRAI data	Joanna Hikaka and Katherine Bloomfield University of Auckland
3.40 pm	Early Risk Factors for Loneliness and Carer Stress – a Longitudinal Evaluation of interRAI assessments	Hans Ulrich Bergler University of Otago
4 pm	Establishing a community-based service for older people living with frailty (OPAL CS) in the Midcentral Region	Syed Zaman and Herman Sung Whatu Ora – MidCentral and Deloitte's
4.20 pm	Closing comments and summary	Gary Cheung, Chair interRAI Research Network (iRN)
4.30 pm	Closing karakia	Joanna Hikaka, interRAI Research Network (iRN)

Sponsored by